A very large Collection of the Topography of Oxford and Oxfordshire, including Sets of the Oxford Almanacks, &c.

Topographical Views of Europe; Heraldry, &c. &c.

A sure guarantee as to the quality, beauty and originality of the Drawings is afforded by the European reputation, well-known taste and great artistic knowledge of the late Proprietor; the Compiler of the accompanying Catalogue has therefore thought it useless to do more than describe each Drawing, without adding any comments of his own; he will merely refer the Amateur to the exquisite beauty of the works of Perugino, Raffaelle, Michael Angelo, Titian, Parmigiano, Correggio, Vandyck, Rubens, &c. &c.

The Collection of Drawings by Claude (nearly 200 in number) is unequalled in point of beauty and interest, and several of the examples are of the highest quality.
